Qualities

Forward Progression: Confident carrying the ball out from the back — initiates attacks with forward runs and precise passing into midfield, helping transition from defense to offense.

Tactical Intelligence : Smart positioning and game reading; breaks up attacks and covers space with good anticipation.

Competitive Mentality: Shows strong commitment, consistency, and resilience throughout the match.

Left-side Versatility : Comfortable playing on the left side of the defense. Capable of overlapping when needed, delivers accurate crosses, and supports the build-up phase effectively.

A 1.83m left-footed full-back with solid defensive awareness and calm on the ball. Primarily used as a left-back, Hichri combines positional discipline with the ability to carry the ball forward and deliver accurate crosses. Less about overlapping runs, more about timing, control, and clean distribution. His aerial ability remains a bonus, especially during set plays, but his game is built more on structure, intelligence, and consistency.
